Prompt One

Cohort One & Four Winning Essay

“My earliest memory is me going to an elevator. I think it was for the birth of my brother, but I am not sure. The next memory is me at Chuck E Cheese” (Founder Kayla Willis)

Do you recall your earliest memory? Do you think memories are a substantial part of our life? (Minimum 500 words)

Prompt Two

Cohort Three Winning Essay

Attending college can be a stressful transition, but it can also be some of the best years of your life! What are some things you are looking forward to about the next step in your education journey? Do you think that your high school experiences have shaped you to feel this way?

(Minimum 500 words)

Prompt Three

Booker T. Washington, founder of Tuskegee University, says, “Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles that he has overcome.” From this quote, analyze what you get from it, and talk about a time in your life when you have experienced success. (Minimum 500 words)

Prompt Four

Time is measured, but it is not destined. We all have a finite amount of time. What do you do with your time? How do you make sure that you are cherishing the amount of time you have, whether with yourself or others? (Minimum 500 words)

Prompt Five

Nike's infamous slogan is "Just do it." The word "it" could mean many things, but at the minimum, it means being a risk-taker. How are you a risk-taker? What risks have you taken that have placed you in your current position? (Minimum 500 words)
